

جامعة نايف العربية
للعلوم الأمنية
NAIF ARAB UNIVERSITY
FOR SECURITY SCIENCES
تأسست ١٩٧٨ Est. 1978

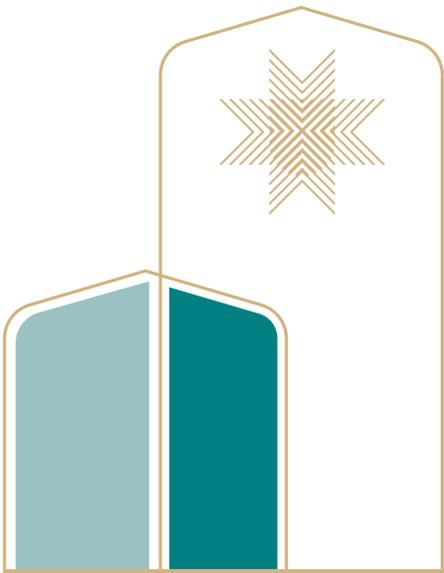

University Publications

Naif University Publishing House

In the Name of Allah,
the Most Beneficent,
the Most Merciful

Books

Dictionary for Forensic Entomology (English - Arabic)

Walid Kaakeh & Others

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2021 Paper: 618 Pages

ISBN - 978-603-8235-06-5

Abstract

This dictionary provides a basic comprehensive coverage of the terms used in forensic entomology. Forensic entomology is concerned with criminal acts related to insects and examined by investigators, depending on evidence and methods of entomology. The dictionary will be particularly useful to a wide range of readers with different knowledge backgrounds. More than 5000 scientific and technical terms in English are included in this dictionary. These terms cover various areas, such as modern molecular techniques in forensic entomology, the analysis of entomological data, records and reports of forensic entomology cases, and tools for the collection, preservation and breeding of insects in laboratories. Moreover, the dictionary contains common and scientific names of insect species of forensic importance and the external structure and biology of insects, besides common and scientific names relevant to the collection of evidence and entomological data from crime scenes, post-mortem or death changes, insects succession onto cadavers in different environments, forensic meteorology, entomological toxicology, and post-mortem intervals.

Social Policy and Combating Cybercrimes in Saudi Society

Ghada Alturaif, Abdulwanis Alrashidi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2020

Paper: 190 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-30-0

Abstract

It shows its concepts and components, and indicates the theoretical aspects including the evolution, development, and importance of social policy. The book's second part explores the cybercrimes in the Saudi society. It highlights the concepts and causes of such crimes, and demonstrates the factors leading to their dissemination. Moreover, this part sheds light on the cybercrimes rates in Saudi Arabia. The book calls for activating the role of civil society organization to combat cybercrimes phenomenon. It also indicates that readable, audio, and visual mass media should be supported for increasing awareness of cybercrimes risks.

The Governing Rules of Criminal Intelligence & Information Analysis

Muhammed Saifedden Abdulrazzak

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2020

Paper: 432 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8235-27-0

Abstract

«The book discusses the governing rules of criminal intelligence and information analysis. It demonstrates how these rules are necessary for supporting law enforcement operations at all levels (operational, tactical, and strategic). The professional response to complex crimes committed by criminal groups is particularly highlighted. This response includes collection, evaluation, and classification of the obtained information by using the analytical tools that integrate, interpret, and analyze the gathered information. Accordingly, high-quality inferences may be produced, developed, and disseminated for enabling the security decision maker to encounter the third millennium criminals. The book is divided into four chapters. The first chapter describes: The fundamentals of sciences of intelligence analysis of information on the criminal level. The second chapter elucidates the governing rules of criminal intelligence. The third chapter explores The tactical analysis of information. The fourth chapter shows the strategic analysis of information. «

Basics of Forensic Entomology The Role of Flies in Legal Investigations

Layla Oudah Humaid Al-shareef

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2020

Paper: 298 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-28-7

Abstract

“The book explores the forensic entomology by indicating its definition, historical background, and applications. It highlights some types of insects, such as Phylum Arthropoda, Crustacea, etc. In addition, the book provides detailed demonstration for flies, and shows their forensic importance and external morphology. The blowfly species in Jeddah city, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia are also described. The book calls for providing a database on the insect types with forensic importance in each geographical region. It indicates that research on lifecycle of insects commonly disseminating in each region should be made. Moreover, it focuses on the necessity of training for forensic evidence technicians to appropriately collect the insect evidence from the death scene”

The Media Theories

Taha Negm

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2020

Paper: 342 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-01-0

Abstract

The book discusses the media theories in the contemporary mass media. These media theories have appeared without prior social thought or theorization for the functions, objectives, and impacts of such theories. The book also shows how the contemporary media theories are valid for understanding what happen in our society because of mass media operations and activities, and explores the developments and changes affecting them. Moreover, it demonstrates that social institutions activities, developments, and changes affect the mass media content. Some theories indicates that it is difficult to depend on only mass media to form an image for the surrounding reality as they sometimes present inaccurate information and side with some parties.

Contemporary Industrial Security

Abbas Abu-Shama Abdulmahmoud, Yaha Ali D. Alghamdi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2019

Paper: 196 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-24-9

Abstract

This book identifies the science of industrial security, which seeks to reduce accidents in the industrial field to the minimum level, and to reduce the costs of injuries caused by incidents which are of direct relation to work incidents. Within its recommendations, the book stresses that the approved curricula and courses should the subject of industrial security in its comprehensive and modern concept.

Sources of Knowledge and Communication Technology

Abdulrahman Ibrahim Alshaer

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2019

Paper: 378 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-23-2

Abstract

In the age of information revolution, the flow, development, transfer, preserve, and display methods of information, it became necessary to maintain rules and systems to disseminate and make information accessible to everyone. This book sheds light on the relationship between the dissemination of knowledge and the philosophy of change. Moreover, it reviews the fundamental principles related to the phenomenon of social change.

Confronting Counter Media Campaigns through Social Media

Um Alsaad Abdulrahman Makki

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2019

Paper: 239 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-18-8

Abstract

This book seeks to highlight the role of the security efforts in confronting media campaigns of terrorist organizations through social media. Social media has become the scene for committing cybercrime under many names. This is due to the fact that terrorist organizations transferred their activities to the internet in order to promote their programs, thoughts, and actions.

Means and Methods of the Psychological Warfare and Confrontation Mechanisms

Muhammed Badrat Beder

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2019

Paper: 237 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-22-5

Abstract

Psychological warfare is among the most important topics of the current times. It aims to demolish the morale and to force opponents into submission to achieve State's policy and goals. The book yielded several recommendations, the most pertinent of which is that education should be made compulsory until secondary school, moreover, a legislation is required to punish parents for depriving their children from education during this stage.

The Policy of Punishment in Islamic Sharia and Contemporary Regulations: Comparative Study

Shaker Muqbel Alosaimi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2019

Paper: 199 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-19-5

Abstract

This book addresses the penal policy in Islamic Sharia, which is characterized by stability in the origins, foundations, and principles of criminal justice. Among the most important findings, the book reveals that penal policy works to achieve major objectives and legitimate purposes based on the stipulated penalties. In the recommendations, the book stresses that the regulatory authority and guardians should pay special attention to strengthening the pillars of the penal policy by organizing and codifying crimes and discretionary penalties.

Guarantees of the Accused in the Statute of the International Criminal Court and Comparative Law (One Part)

Muhammed Ahmad Almenshaw

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2019

Paper: 472 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-21-8

Abstract

In its first part, the book deals with the guarantees of the accused in the Statute of the International Criminal Court and comparative law in the preliminary investigation stage. In its findings, the book clarifies that the guarantees of the accused contained in the Rome Statute have deep historical roots. In addition, it reveals that Rome Statute and other comparative legislations stressed the need to guarantee the freedom of speech for the accused in the interrogation process.

Guarantees of the Accused in the Statute of the International Criminal Court and Comparative Law (Two Parts)

Muhammed Ahmad Almenshaw

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2019

Paper: 334 Pages

ISBN - 978-603-8235-20-1

Abstract

In its second part, the book discusses the guarantees of the accused in the Statute of the International Criminal Court and comparative law in the trial stage since this topic is of great significance. The book seeks to clarify the impacts of the guarantees of the accused stipulated in the Rome Statute in ensuring a fair trial for the accused. Moreover, it indicates the extent to which these guarantees are in line with the guarantees stipulated in national legislations.

Studies on Sustainable Development Entry Points

Amer Khudair Al-Kubaisy & Others

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2019

Paper: 385 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-16-4

Abstract

This book highlights entry points to studies on sustainable development. It includes eight interrelated and integrated entry points that can contribute to making sustainable development a tangible reality, and thus, make its results measurable by indicators, applied research, and models that translate theories.

Education and the Promotion of Intellectual Security

Ali Fayz Aljahni

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2019

Paper: 314 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-15-7

Abstract

This book addresses the importance of education in achieving intellectual security and the required future procedures and strategies. It reveals the role of educational institutions in consolidating intellectual security, raising awareness, and creating the sense of security. In addition, the book identifies the role of the teacher, student advisor, and mentor in achieving intellectual security, raising awareness, and creating the sense of security among students.

Civil Protection and Human Security “The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia as a Model”

Khadeja Arafa Mohammed Ameen

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2019

Paper: 420 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-14-0

Abstract

This book discusses the development of civil protection concept from its early origin till now. It highlights the futuristic challenges affecting the role and plans of civil protection in the light of climate changes and the spread of the current form of international terrorism. It applies its academic vision on the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. In application, the book explores the most critical environmental and human hazards threatening the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia today.

DNA Extraction and Quantitation in Forensic Applications “Principles and Scientific Concepts”

Ahmad Shaban Kassab

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2018

Paper: 210 Pages

ISBN - 978-603-8235-13-3

Abstract

This book addresses the scientific principles and concepts underpinning the steps of DNA extraction and quantitation in forensic applications; aiming to achieve innovation and development for the specialist in the DNA analysis.

The book reveals that DNA extraction and quantitation are two essential stages in the process of analyzing and studying DNA, which aim at forensic or civil identification.

The Image of the Traffic Cop in the Arab Media

Khalid Ibrahim Al-Kurdi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2018

Paper: 210 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-09-6

Abstract

This book sheds light on the image of the traffic cop in the Arab media represented in some Arab daily newspapers published in some Arab capitals. The importance of this book lies in identifying the mental image of the traffic cop through the daily read newspapers. The mental image of the traffic cop reflects the reputation of the General Department of Traffic in society in addition to its spirit and identity.

Structural Equation Modeling in Psychological and Social Sciences “Foundations, Applications and Issues” (Part One)

Abdulnasser Alsayed Amer

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2018 Paper: 376 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8253-11-9

Abstract

In its first part, the book addresses the foundations and principles of the structural equation modeling as being a statistical method widely used in studies and research in all disciplines. The structural equation modeling presents an advanced analytical strategy in the psychological, behavioral, and social sciences. The book aims to assist researchers to comprehend the foundations, applications, and issues of the structural equation modeling and how to implement it using LISREL.

Structural Equation Modeling in Psychological and Social Sciences “Foundations, Applications and Issues” (Part Two)

Abdulnasser Alsayed Amer

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2018 Paper: 356 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-12-4

Abstract

In its second part, the book addresses the regression analysis, path analysis, exploratory factor analysis, confirmatory factor analysis, and others. Moreover, the book presents the path analysis as an appropriate way to verify the causal models that explain the causal relationships between the phenomenon variables in a more comprehensive manner which fits the nature of the psychological, social, and behavioral phenomena. In addition, the book demonstrates the factor analysis method, whether exploratory, confirmative, or exploratory-confirmative.

Security and Safety Management in Laboratories

Laila Abdullah Alkhateeb

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2018

Paper: 285 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-05-8

Abstract

The book discusses security and safety culture in laboratories. It highlights the importance of this culture and its role in establishing an effective administrative system for ensuring laboratories safety and security. In addition, it explores how various hazards threatening laboratories are identified and managed. Moreover, the book sheds light on some ways that may motivate laboratories personnel to understand and apply rules and procedures of safety and security.

Studies on the Sustainable Public Organizations

Amer Khudair Al-Kubaisy & Others

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2018

Paper: 420 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-06-5

Abstract

The book discusses the public organizations sustainability which is a tool for activating the strategies, plans, and programs of sustainable development. Now, sustainability is representing the “scientific and practical paradigm” offered through the organizations, conferences, and international agreements of the United Nations. It presents some basic concepts and terminology that can serve as guiding tools for developing the traditional features and objectives of public, civil, and private organizations to achieve the third millennium aspirations.

Iran's Nuclear Program: Regional and International Dimensions (2002 - 2016)

Abdulfattah Ali Alrashdan, Rana Abdulaziz Alkhammash

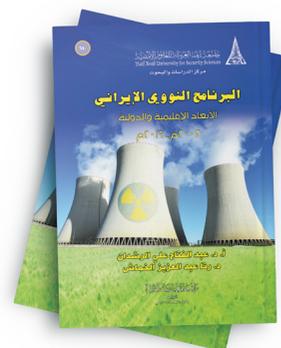

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2017

Paper: 368 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-08-9

Abstract

This book addresses the emergence of Iran's nuclear program and the stages of its development in addition to its regional and international implications. It clarifies the relations between the main regional powers and Iran, and their development, internal and external factors affecting them, and their impact on the positions of the forces on Iran's nuclear program. In the findings, it clarifies that the continued crisis of Iran's nuclear program is a time bomb liable to explode at any time.

Security Media and its Role in the Fight Against Drugs (An Applied Study on Arab Maghreb States)

Buhniah Ahmad Kawi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2017

Paper: 228 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-02-7

Abstract

The book addresses the effectiveness of the roles played by security media in adopting a preventive strategy in the fight against drugs in the Arab Maghreb States. Within the findings, the book highlights the need to train media personnel in the Maghreb States for the purpose of building common media contents. In the recommendations, it stresses the need to form specialized joint working group to conduct an integrated study on the reality and future of security media in these states.

The Criminal Penalty and Precautionary Measures in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia

Nehad Farouk Abbas

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2017

Paper: 348 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8235-03-4

Abstract

This book discusses the criminal penalty and precautionary measures in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. It demonstrates that Islamic Sharia is at the forefront of Saudi criminal policy and positive laws. The principles of Islamic Sharia are the main source for Saudi criminal policy and positive laws. Accordingly, comprehensive national security can be realized by maintaining all private and public interests.

The Security Media and Internet: Encountering the Terrorist Threats (Da'esh and Al-Qaida as Models)

Omar Ibrahim Bosaida, Hamdy Beshir Muhammad

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2017

Paper: 175 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-04-1

Abstract

This book discusses the role played by security media for encountering terrorist threats over the internet. It sheds light upon ISIS and Al-Qaida as the most active and dangerous terrorist organizations on the internet. Among its recommendations, the book explains that concentrated adverse promotional media campaigns should be planned and executed in order to encounter the threats impacting security from publishing of online media materials promoting the beliefs of Al-Qaida and ISIS.

Security Media and Rumors Through Social Networks: A Survey Study on Social Networks Audience

Muhammed Sadeq Ismael

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2017

Paper: 213 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8235-07-2

Abstract

This book addresses the role of the security media in confronting rumors through social media. It seeks to put up a vision on how to face the negative repercussions of the spread of rumors and lies on the security and stability of the society. The book offers multiple recommendations, the most salient is the need for raising awareness on the dangers of rumors through official and non-official social institutions.

The Cybercrimes in the Arab Legislations and Conventions

Emam Hassanin Atallah

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2017

Paper: 565 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-99-9

Abstract

The book discusses the compatibility of Arab criminal legislations dealing with cybercrime with the international and regional trends regarding the same issue. It defines the general frame of incrimination and the type of penalties stipulated in each legislation. The most salient of its findings is that the analytical comparative examination of Arab criminal legislations concerning combating cybercrime shows some similarities and differences between these legislations.

Academic Classifications of the Inmates of Correctional Institutions Between the Requirements of Security and Human Rights

Rokaya Awashriyya, Dalila Mbarki, Masika Ramadany, Dalila Mbarki, Masika Ramadany

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2017 Paper: 317 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-98-2

Abstract

This book explores the academic classifications of the inmates of correctional institutions. Such classification is considered as the most important preliminary system on which any penal policy is based. Among its findings, the most salient is that the success of the classification process necessitates following-up inmates, within their categories, to ensure that the classification is correct. The book recommends cancelling the legal classification on the basis of the sentenced period, since it doesn't reflect the criminal gravity of the offender.

Electronic Court: A Comparative Study Based on Fundamental Sources

Abdul-Aziz bin Saad Alghanim

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2017

Paper: 232 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-96-8

Abstract

This book explores the electronic court and relevant computerization of litigation. In addition, it highlights the replacement of the fully paper-based judicial procedures by applying the electronic means established in the registration of lawsuit and its proceedings. The book recommends establishing a national e-litigation body, with independent legal personality, to adopt practices, programs, and all legal sector staff. This is in accordance with the requirements of electronic litigation in all its variables.

Security Media Within the Context of the Security Variables

Rania Abdel-Naim Al-Ishran, Juman Hamed Al-Dahamesheh, Abdurruhman Fahad Alajmi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2017

Paper: 192 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-94-4

Abstract

This book explores the role of security media, in all of its forms, in addressing the security variables emerging in the Arab region which requires that all security bodies should be ready to respond to such events. Among its findings, the book stressed the importance of enhancing cooperation between the security media and various mass media by making use of their available capabilities to achieve the objectives associated with security media.

International Guarantees on Providing Fair Criminal Trial

Waheed Bin Saeed Al-Wadei

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2017

Paper: 390 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-93-7

Abstract

This book explores procedural, and objective guarantees necessary to provide fair criminal trials. It exposes the comparative viewpoints of both Saudi law and Egyptian legislation on such guarantees. In its conclusion, the book offers some inferences, it stresses the need to observe the guarantees of fair criminal trials through studies based on original sources.

Organizational Thought During Modernism and Post-Modernism Phases

Amir Khudhair Al-Kubaisi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2017

Paper: 205 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-92-0

Abstract

This book presents the reflections of modernism philosophy as projected by the pioneers of conventional organizational thought. They have striven to employ intellect in the construct of designs, models, and theories. Among the prominent recommendations is that followers of different religions, schools of thought, and eastern philosophies should ponder their differences and explore an approach on building civilization based on originality and contemporary realities.

Evaluating the Methods of DNA Extraction from Nails Samples

Tahani Mansi Al-Onazi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2017

Paper: 101 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8116-91-3

Abstract

This book deals with DNA extraction from nails samples. This extraction is of great importance. It provides analytical data on DNA in multiple criminal fields. The importance of this study lies in two of the most important methods to extract DNA, namely: organic extraction, and QIAGEN extraction kits. Moreover, the book highlights the development of both methods by using a solvent solution of sodium hydroxide and clarifies the impact of nail polish.

Alternative Punishments in Juveniles Cases (Comparative Study)

Muhsina Saeed Alqahtani

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2017

Paper: 244 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-89-0

Abstract

This book deals with the concept of alternative punishments on juveniles. It sheds light on its legitimate and regular original sources. It stresses that the primary goal of the punishments in juvenile cases in Islam is to reform. The book yielded the following recommendations: the culture of dialogue among juveniles should be disseminated, the exchange of experiences between juvenile judges should be facilitated, and a judicial blog should be created to include all cases with alternative punishments on juveniles.

The Reality of Training in Some Arab Institutes and Colleges of Civil Defence (Descriptive Study)

Khalid bin saleem Alharbi, Ali bin Abdullah Alshehri

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2017

Paper: 184 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-88-3

Abstract

This book discusses the reality of training in some Arab colleges, and institutes of civil defense. It is a preliminary stage for subsequent research based on the findings of this study for offering shared Arab visions. Accordingly, a paradigm shift in training at civil defense bodies can be realized. The book stresses the importance of offering training programs for specialists in civil defense duties. These programs should be remotely directed to the trainees at the Arab colleges and institutes of civil defense.

Impacts of the Security Incidents on the Psychology of Security Man and his Performance

Khalid Ibrahim Hassan Al-Kurdi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2016

Paper: 183 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-85-2

Abstract

This book discusses the impacts of security incidents, that the Arab region is passing through, on the psychology of the security man and his performance. It exposes nature of the work carried out by the security man and the incidents he faces. In its recommendations, the book stresses the need to develop psychological, behavioral, and cognitive programs by specialists to be applied in withstanding the pressure of occupational work for security man.

The Terminology Used by the Arab Bodies of Criminal Justice

Khalid bin Saud Albeshr

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2016

Paper: 488 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-79-1

Abstract

Following the scientific developments in the field of forensic sciences, the need arose for a scientific publication that codifies the basic terms of forensic sciences and their definitions. This book deals with the explanation of the criminal terms used in forensic sciences and relevant sciences, in terms of language, Sharia, and law. It suffices to express that specialized publications and their contribution to the development of cognitive sciences constitutes vital assistance to the comprehension and solving of intellectual dilemmas.

Ways to Improvement of the Psychological Care

As-Sayed Fahmy Ali Mohamed

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2016

Paper: 552 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-80-7

Abstract

This book explores a definition of the psychological care in addition to the achievement of psychological health under the global and local political, social, and familial unfavorable factors that have a relative impact on everyone. It yielded multiple recommendations, the most salient is that the subject of psychological care and health should be discussed in all public health sectors.

Arab National Security and Its Future Challenges

Miloud Amer Haaj

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2016

Paper: 537 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-78-4

Abstract

This book identifies the characteristics of Arab national security and its future challenges despite the efforts and perceptions presented in this regard. Among its most prominent recommendations, the book stresses on activating the action of the Arab League based on the developments in the Arab region.

Standard Specifications for Traffic Safety

Ayman Samir Al-Dhabaa

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2016

Paper: 203 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-76-0

Abstract

This book explores the standard specifications for traffic safety. Its recommendations are based on three elements (vehicle, road, legislations and laws). Among its most salient recommendations is that standard specifications for vehicle parts should be developed. They include the performance, safety, environmental compliance, positive and inherent safety devices, and their obligation.

The Complementary Relationship Between Traffic Bodies and Insurance Companies

Mohamed bin Suleiman bin Manea

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2016

Paper: 173 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-75-3

Abstract

This book seeks to determine the nature of the relationship between the traffic bodies and the quality of insurance services in the Arab world. It comprises four chapters. Among the most important findings is that the Arab world, especially the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, has the world highest traffic accidents rates. Among its recommendations, the book stresses the importance of adopting traffic safety as a national concept to be disseminated among other governmental bodies concerned with traffic safety.

Safety in Tourist Facilities - An Applied Study on Children Amusement Parks in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia

Muhammed Naser Al-Beshi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2016

Paper: 198 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-72-2

Abstract

This book deals with safety requirements and means of protection that should be available in tourist facilities, especially in children playgrounds at public parks and in children amusement parks in the kingdom of Saudi Arabia. It comprises five chapters. Within its findings, the book explains that most applied requirements in tourist facilities are that children games should be installed tightly. Among the recommendations, the book stresses that confidence should be enhanced among amusement parks visitors.

International Protection of Wild Environment from the Dangers of Pollution

Abdulahim Naser Joudeh

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2016

Paper: 310 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-43-2

Abstract

This book defines the concept of wild environment and the sources of its pollution. It also identifies the protection tools of both living and non-living wild environment. It comprises four chapters and addresses the international liability for the damages resulting from infringement on the wild environment and the regional and international cooperation for the protection of wild environment and the relevant role of international organizations.

Practical and Theoretical Determinants of Preventive Security Media - Analytical Study

Muhammed Saifedden Abdulrazzak, Yusra Husni Abdulkhalek

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2016

Paper: 269 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-71-5

Abstract

This book addresses the preventive role played by the ministries of interior of few Arab countries through their websites and social media accounts. It comprises five chapters. In its findings, the book stresses that the ministries of interior under study show interest in raising awareness and security knowledge among the public. In addition, it recommends that security institutions should rely on an integrated media strategy in developing preventive security media messages.

Technology of Identity Card in the Field of Civil Affairs

Ahmed Saad Goher

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2016

Paper: 149 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-70-8

Abstract

This book deals with the manufacturing of identity cards and the securing and protection methods against forgery and counterfeiting. It comprises six chapters. It recommends providing means of awareness and training for the ordinary man who represents the first level of detection. This can be achieved by providing sufficient bulletins in government newspapers, and also through newscasts and TV programs.

Psychological and Social Damages Caused by Illegal Immigration

Ahmad Abdulaziz Al-Asfar Al-Laham

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2016

Paper: 252 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-67-8

Abstract

This book analyzes the factors leading to psychological and social damages caused by illegal immigration. It addresses these factors in the light of the interaction processes among objective conditions surrounding the youth. It comprises seven chapters in which it presented the historical development of illegal immigration. In addition, it highlights the consequent damages in light of the interaction of the objective conditions surrounding the youth in their original societies, and the international and regional efforts to combat illegal immigration.

Preliminary Non-Criminal Lawsuits Requiring Adjudication in Criminal Trials: A Comparative Study

Muhammad Abdul Hamid Mekki

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2016

Paper: 203 Pages

ISBN - P: 978-603-8116-68-5

Abstract

This book presents the preliminary non-criminal lawsuits requiring adjudication in criminal trials. It will assist various typology of personnel associated with different bodies, judiciary, public prosecution and investigation, security personnel, attorneys, and researchers. The book explains that in preliminary lawsuits presented to the criminal court during the process of criminal trial the final ruling is issued commensurate to the nature of the case study. Moreover, it recommends abrogating Article (225) of the criminal procedural law.

Bullying Behavior among Children and Teenagers

Ali Musa Al Sabhen, Mohammed Farhan Al Kouda

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2013

Paper: 232 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8116-24-1

Abstract

This book addresses the behavior of bullying as a phenomenon directed from one child to another. Bullies will develop non-social and criminal behavior patterns, with alcohol and drug abuse and the use of weapons which is a learned behavior from the environment in which they live. Early intervention and spreading awareness are necessary and important factors to stop the bullying behavior, the need is urgent to educate students and bullies with appropriate methods to manage their relationships with others.

Security Culture: Concept and Reality

Abdul Rahman bin Ibrahim Al Shaer

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2013

Paper: 186 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8116-27-2

Abstract

This book sheds light on the evolution taking place in the activities of human societies; this evolution caused a permanent change and continuous adaptation with the modern age technical data. The elements of security culture seek to reinforce the development of orientation towards the community, the citizen, the environment, and mental skills. Moreover, the book reviews the philosophy of change and the security vision, the cultural orientation and the security orientation of the security culture.

International Cooperation to Counter Organized Crime

Mukhtar Hussain Shbaili

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2013

Paper: 362 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8116-18-0

Abstract

This book sheds light on international cooperation to counter organized crime. This subject is divergent; it has extensions in history, geography, economics, sociology, psychology, criminology, international law, international criminal law, international relations, international organizations and police sciences. It stresses the importance of countering organized crime being of great danger to countries and the entire international community.

Security Interrogation

Ahmad Abdullah Al Saeed

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2013

Paper: 146 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8116-23-4

Abstract

This book sheds light on security interrogation being one of the most important procedures of the interrogation process. It discusses several topics, including interrogation flaws, characteristics of the interrogator, security interrogation in cybercrime, and the practical aspects of security interrogation.

Legal and Security Dimensions of the Relationship of the Arab States and the International Criminal Court

Muhammed bin Hassan Al Harthi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2013

Paper: 302 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8116-26-5

Abstract

This book aims to introduce the permanent International Criminal Court (ICC), and to track the efforts that preceded its foundation in addition to its relationship with the Security Council and the national judiciary. The book spreads awareness on the Court and monitors its new applications. In addition, it identifies the nature of joint Arab action and provides a future vision for the relationship of Arab countries with the Court and the relationship of the Court with national judicial systems.

Immigrant Rights and Obligations in International Private Law: Comparative Analytical Study in the Arab Legislations

Muhammed Al Sayed Arafah

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2013

Paper: 450 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8116-20-3

Abstract

This book sheds light on international immigration, especially manpower immigration, as it is considered a necessity for both sending countries “exporting countries” and receiving countries “importing countries”. The book seeks to enrich the legal knowledge in the field of determining the legal status of international immigrants in relation to their rights and duties. In addition, it clarifies the position of comparative jurisprudence and some judicial and legal comparative applications in determining the legal status of international immigrants.

Non-traditional Security

Mohammed Jamal Mazloun

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2012

Paper: 418 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8116-16-6

Abstract

This book addresses the subject of non-traditional security, this subject has become a new concept that is connected to the life of the human being, achieving non-traditional security has become a basic demand for the human being in order to preserve his life. Both concepts, traditional and non-traditional security, have become a basic demand for the human being. The book includes old and new security concepts, such as: health and environmental security and the personal security of citizens.

Strategic Leadership and its Role in Developing Organizational Culture

Saleh bin Saad Al Murabaa

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2012

Paper: 447 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8116-14-2

Abstract

This book addresses the role of strategic leadership in the development of organizations in order to qualify strategic leadership in security services in general, and the General Directorate of Passports and the General Directorate of Civil Defense in particular. The book seeks to clarify the preparation of strategic leadership cadres that will contribute to the development of organizational culture in these bodies considering social factors and local environment to develop flexible organizational culture that will assist in accomplishing work optimally.

Drugs, its Effects and Ways of Safe Disposal

Mahmoud Al Sayed Ali

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2012

Paper: 210 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8116-11-1

Abstract

This book addresses drugs addiction and its harmful health and financial effects, which will affect individuals and society. It discusses various aspects of drugs addiction and highlights the efforts and funds dedicated to handle this phenomenon. In addition, it sheds light on few psychological effects when abstaining from taking drugs, such as: anxiety, tension, depression, lack of concentration, and lack of relief. The book presented definitions and concepts of drugs and addiction, opiates, cannabis, steroids, LSD, sedatives, and hypnotics.

Norms of Forensic Medicine and Toxicology: Security Personnel and Law

Raja M. Abdul Mabud

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2012

Paper: 390 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8116-07-4

Abstract

This book discusses forensic medicine. The latter has emerged as a distinct medical discipline specializes in recruiting medical expertise on solving medical- oriented problems required by investigatory and judicial authorities. Forensic medicine is amply discussed in two sections.

First is forensic pathology. It includes causes and types of death.

Second is clinical forensic medicine. It includes forensic and legal medical cases.

Countering Mechanisms for Policing Crimes of Domestic Violence

Hassan M. Abido

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2012

Paper: 250 Pages

SBN-P: 978-603-8116-04-3

Abstract

This book deals with domestic violence. It explores the conducive policing mechanisms to counter domestic violence commensurate to the distinctive nature of the contending parties. In addition, it addresses its negative impacts on the security and stability of society and the importance of the role of the police in achieving security in society.

Supremacy of Polymer Banknotes: A Comparative Study between Paper and Polymer Banknotes

Ahmed Saad Goher

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2012

Paper: 192 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8116-10-4

Abstract

Banknotes counterfeiting is a present threat for universal economy. This threat results in finding an alternative way to face this catastrophe. A new creative experiment appeared in Australia, based on changing the traditional rag security paper (natural polymer) used in banknotes to synthetic polymer substrate (polymer). These banknotes are made from the polymer biaxially-oriented polypropylene.

Application of DNA Fingerprinting in Solving Forensic Cases

Ahmed M. Refaat

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2012

Paper: 145 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8116-15-9

Abstract

Based upon DNA fingerprint applications, this book provides its relative role in solving criminal cases. Also, it shows its role in determining filiation and the identification of the dead body. It is important to assert that DNA fingerprint applications represent the best approach in criminal forensic research laboratories. It also addresses the importance of creating DNA databases for the identification of criminals.

Combating Human Trafficking

A group of experts and specialists

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2012

Paper: 158 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-00-5

Abstract

This book is a compilation of research studies presented to the scientific seminar “Combating Human Trafficking” which was organized by Naif Arab University for Security Sciences at its headquarters during the period 21-25/1/2012. The book also includes a collection of research studies in the field of human trafficking.

Violence-Related Crimes in the Arab Countries and Their Methods of Combating

Abbas Abu Shama Abdulmahmoud

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2012

Paper: 263 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-97-9

Abstract

This book addresses the crimes of violence as they pose grave threat to the security of the Arab World. Such crimes generate terror and apprehension among people and cast negative impacts as well. The importance of the study is comprehensible by considering the context within which such crimes are presented. This context provides us needed data. This data exposes the secrecy surrounding the determinants related to the crimes of violence within the Arab countries.

A Moderate Approach in Islam: A Sure Means Attaining Security of World Societies

Shaukat M. Alian

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2012

Paper: 289 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-96-2

Abstract

This book discusses the subject of moderation in Islam since it assures the achievement of security of societies. It is indeed a subject of our time. It exercises profound impact of constructive nature on the belief, behavior and the fate of the Islamic nation. A glimpse of history reveals that Islamic nation remained successful and victorious so long as they followed moderate approach. The book stresses the need for modern renewed jurisprudence to be adaptable to every time and place.

Drugs Trafficking

Muhammad Jamal Mazloum

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2012

Paper: 425 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-88-7

Abstract

This book explores the phenomenon of drug trafficking, promotion, and addiction. The importance of the study stems from the fact that drugs represent one of the sources that pose threat to the most precious asset in the world . human life. Also, it casts perilous impact on mankind. The book seeks to identify the new types of drugs and the producing countries, and to determine the economic, social, and security risks associated with illicit drug trafficking.

Reasons for Drugs Abuse in the Arab Society

Ahmed A. Al- Asfar

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2012

Paper: 322 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-93-1

Abstract

This book discusses the abuse of drugs and psychotropic substances in the Arab society. Key decision-makers are watching the development with utmost concern. The study provides an analysis of the problem under treatment with variant angles based on the perception of various formative factors .family; school; community groups; and communication channels. Moreover, the book explores the political, social, and economic dimensions of this phenomenon.

Constructing Security Model on Combating Cyber Crimes and its Relative Effectiveness

Turki Abdul Rehman Al-Mowaichir

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2012

Paper: 441 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-74-0

Abstract

This book sheds light on the importance of information and data, their nature, constituents, counting, classification, tabulation and analysis in order to be effectively utilized in countering cybercrime in the modern age. Social and economic transformations have accompanied the increased use of computer as a tool of information storage, process, and retrieval. Therefore, the idea of constructing security model to combat cybercrime in general and in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia in particular seems vital.

Drugs and psychotropic substances: strategies and measures jurisdictions

Mohammad Fathi Eid

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2012

Paper: 391 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-75-7

Abstract

This book reviews drug control strategies and their implementation measures. It highlights the historical development of drug control in the Arab world, the Arab drug control strategy, results of the implementation of the international drug control strategy, dangers and harms of drugs, the penalty of corruption in Islamic Sharia, national jurisdiction, and the international criminal court.

Fingerprints science and personality verification

Abdullah bin Mohammad Al-Youssef

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2012

Paper: 289 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-90-0

Abstract

This is a completion of the book: "Origin and Evolution of Personality Verification Systems" published by the University in 2007. The book addresses the study of fingerprints of papillary lines and defines fingerprint as the traces of those salient lines (Ridges) parallel to the deep and low lines (Furrows) that leave traces on any object they touch, whether smooth or rough surfaces. Therefore, fingerprints are the prints left by fingertips, palms, and toes upon contacting polished surfaces or paper documents.

Personal Identification Techniques Facing Security Challenges

Awad bin Mohammad Galab Al- Wathnani

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2011 Paper: 308 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-68-8

Abstract

This book deals with personal identification techniques facing security challenges by trying to answer the following question: How effective are the modern techniques for personal identification facing contemporary security challenges. The theme of the book is displayed through five chapters: The first chapter shows the problem of the study, and its questions, objectives, relevance, limits, concepts, and terminology. The second chapter shows the theoretical background of the study. The third chapter presents the methodological procedures of the study, while the fourth chapter discusses the study of data- presentation and analysis and discusses the results. The fifth chapter is specified to show the summary of the results, and the recommendations of the study.

Dictionary of Disaster and Emergency Terminology

Ibrahim H. El- Tikaina

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2011

Paper: 63 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-69-6

Abstract

This dictionary deals with disaster and emergency terminology used in English and their meanings in Arabic. The dictionary is arranged according to English letters from (A) to (Z). This dictionary includes /1164/ terms distributed to English letters.

Effectiveness of the Methods Used to Prove Electronic Forgery Crime

Abdullah bin Saud Mohammad Al Sarani

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2011

Paper: 441 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-65-8

Abstract

This book deals with the effectiveness of the methods used to prove the electronic forgery crime in light of the spread of information technology crimes that require practical experience and scientific methods. It aims to identify the characteristics of the crime of electronic forgery and to reveal means of commitment in addition to the characteristics of online criminals in the crimes of electronic fraud in particular.

Children Victims of Human Smuggling

Khalid bin Salim Al-Harbi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2011

Paper: 362 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-61-0

Abstract

This book deals with the problem of child smuggling to the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. It addresses the main factors that made smuggled children victims of this crime, and the repercussions of this crime on them.

It stresses the importance of establishing a national committee to combat child smuggling and trafficking. Moreover, it emphasizes the need to conduct further scientific studies on child victims of crime in general, and victims of smuggling and trafficking in particular.

Terrorism: A Study on National Program and Strategies to Combat it. (Media Approach)

Mohammad Mass'oud Qerat

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2011

Paper: 383 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-51-1

Abstract

This book deals with the phenomenon of "Terrorism", its causes, forms, characteristics, and objectives. It shows the position of states to terrorism and analyzes and evaluates Arab experiences in the fight against terrorism. Moreover, it addresses the problematic issue of terrorism and media and the way mass media deal with this phenomenon and presented a set of practical suggestions to develop a strategy to activate national counter-terrorism programs.

Drugs and Psychotropic Substances: Abuse Causes and Confrontation Methods

Abdul Elah A. Al Musharraf , Riyad A. Al Jawadi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2011

Paper: 219 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-55-9

Abstract

This books addresses the problem of drugs which is not limited to a certain sector of society as it has become a problem from which all sectors of society are suffering. The book reviews the causes of drug abuse and methods of confrontation, the effects of drugs abuse, theories interpreting drug addiction, and the psychological and social causes for drug addiction.

Reflections of Using Genetic Material and their Potential Impact on National Security

Hamad bin Abdullah Al - Sweilem

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2011

Paper: 519 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-54-2

Abstract

This book deals with the reflections of using genetic material and their potential impact on national security after the discovery of the genetic material (DNA), which has achieved many disadvantages and benefits in several areas and has left serious uncounted reflections if has been misused by terrorist entities and caused harm to the national security of a certain state.

The Human Rights and Criminal Justice

Muhammad Abdellah Weld Muhammeden

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2010

Paper: 195 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-45-0

Abstract

This book addresses the subject of human rights and explains the infringements to human rights and how to maintain them in light of Islamic Sharia through international declarations and charters relevant to criminal procedures and the realization of justice. The book stresses the need for increasing awareness of the attention paid by Islam to human rights and that Islam considers these rights as religious duties by which humans worship God, so they will be rewarded.

English for Security Purposes: An Anthology with language Teaching Exercises

Fouad Abd-Rabo Abdul-Hadi, Saad Ibrahim Mandisha, Samir Mustafa Mahmoud

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2010

Paper: 115 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-35-1

Abstract

This book includes select passages in English for average level English language students. It aims at presenting English language texts and terminologies used by the security men in Arab countries, Interpol, Narcotics Control Departments, and the International Court. The book includes select subjects associated with combating human trafficking, commitment of crimes, violence against children and women, terrorism, money laundering, and genocides.

The Skills of Investigating the Crimes Associated with Currency Counterfeit

Abdullah bin Saud Alsrani

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2010 Paper: 252 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-24-5

Abstract

The present book deals with the crimes related to currency counterfeit. These crimes are considered technical crimes featured with the continuous development. Further, these are associated with the technological and scientific development. Such features of advancement and development are characterizing the print means, computer systems and communication tools in the modern age. The present book includes three chapters. The first chapter deals with the theoretical framework of the current research study. Also, it records previous pertinent studies. The second chapter presents the methodological framework of the present research study. Lastly, the third chapter yields the research findings and their analytical interpretations.

League of Arab States and Resolving Arab Disputes

Ghaleb bin Ghallab Al Otaibi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2010

Paper: 193 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-29-0

Abstract

This book deals with the League of Arab States being a reference institution for the Arab nation. It addresses the active and positive role expected to be played by the League in resolving disputes among member states and in contributing to the establishment of a stable environment, as is the case with other regional organizations. Moreover, it identifies the nature and forms of Arab disputes and clarifies the most important means employed by the League in peacefully resolving Arab disputes.

The Control on Precursors and Chemicals Used for Manufacturing Narcotics

A group of experts and specialists

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2010

Paper: 241 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-9603-8006-17-7

Abstract

This book includes research and studies presented in the scientific seminar under the title “The Control on Precursors and Chemicals Used for Manufacturing Narcotics”. The seminar was organized by the University at its headquarter in Riyadh during the period 23 - 25/12/2002.

The Administrative and Security Training: A Contemporary Vision for the 21st Century

Amer Khudhir Hamid El-Kubaisi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2010

Paper: 263 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-16-0

Abstract

This book sheds light on the administrative and security training that is assigned to managers, planners, and designers of the training programs in addition to trainers, evaluators, and developers who are responsible for training and education for various professional categories. It illustrates training steps and mechanisms being a promising industry and a coherent scientific and practical field inclusive of all levels. Training is considered a gateway for acquiring knowledge and developing skills that embody behaviors to confront challenges and solve problematic issues.

The International Contributions on Combating Human Traffic (The First Part)

Mohammad Yahya Matar and A group of experts and specialists

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2010

Paper: 428 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-15-3

Abstract

This book deals with the various kinds of human trafficking. It seeks to raise awareness on the dangers of this phenomenon and to focus on the contributions of Arab countries to enact legislations, regulations, and laws to reduce its negative effects. Naif Arab University for Security Sciences, in cooperation with Johns Hopkins University, has conducted this study to stress the importance of introducing human trafficking in the human rights courses offered by universities and institutes.

The International Contributions on Combating Human Traffic (The Second Part)

Mohammad Yahya Matar and A group of experts and specialists

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2010

Paper: 337 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-15-3

Abstract

This book is the second part of the scientific publication entitled “The International Contributions on Combating Human Trafficking”. It contains research on subjects relevant to human trafficking.

Women Crimes: The Social Factors Leading to the Commission of Crimes by Women

Basma Bint Abdallah Al-Sennary

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2010

Paper: 277 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-14-6

Abstract

This book discusses the social factors leading to the commission of crime by women and explains theories interpreting the criminal behavior, such as social theory, delinquent culture theory, and geographical theory. It also addresses institutions and women crimes and discussed the social factors leading to the commission of crime by women.

Combating Non-Traditional Disasters

Abbas Abu-Shama Abdulmahmoud

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2009

Paper: 203 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-09-2

Abstract

This book discusses disasters and crises in terms of their hyper-acceleration and serious consequences. It highlights the process of their management which is overwhelmed with concern of the fellow-nationals and the nation itself. It also sheds light on all issues relative to disasters and the modern techniques to counter it, especially non-traditional disasters that became a major concern lately.

Human Security: The Concept and its Application in the Arab and International Real Life

Khadija Arafa Muhammad Amin

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2009

Paper: 207 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-07-8

Abstract

This book deals with the concept of human security by focusing on the evolution of the concept in the bi-dimensional context - academic and applied. Also, it studies the evolution of the concept of human security in the post-cold war era and identifies the most significant and important factors that contribute to the emergence of this concept. Lastly, it discusses various definitions of the concept. In addition, the book discusses the debate about the concept of human security and its various dimensions.

Freezing Sources of Terrorism Financing

Muhammad Al-Sayed Arafah

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2009

Paper: 570 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-04-7

Abstract

This book deals with the subject of terrorism financing. It considers this topic as the most important security threat locally and internationally. These financial resources provide terrorists groups and organizations with money and tools required to implement their criminal acts. Also, these facilitate their criminal acts. Since terrorism has constitute a phenomenon that affects the freedoms and rights of individuals, this book stressed the need to combat terrorism in an effective manner that requires taking measures to combat its financing.

Future Gains of Criminal Penalties from A Reformative Perspective

Midoah Bin Muhammad Al Midoah

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2009

Paper: 392 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-15-3

Abstract

This book deals with the future gains of criminal penalties from a reformative perspective. It highlights the importance of criminal penalties in reforming the criminal and combating crime. It addresses changing the punishment philosophy, explanatory theories of crime and punishment, and the interpretation of crime and punishment in Islamic Sharia. Finally, it deals with rational punishment theories, sociology of judiciary, evolution of judiciary, its development and the protection of its independency, preparation of judiciary, and sociology of courts.

Traffic Safety: Reality and Future Prospects

Mohsen Al-Ajmi Eissa

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2009

Paper: 320 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-9960-59-7-1

Abstract

This book deals with the important topic of traffic safety in relation to traffic and transport; the effectiveness of road systems; preventive plans; and monitoring and violations fines payment programs. It defined the reality of accidents and their economic and social repercussions. The book reviews the registered preventive initiatives and their aspects and explored ways to develop preventive strategies.

Fraud-Related and Organized Crimes

A group of experts and specialists

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2008

Paper: 236 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-9960-59-264-0

Abstract

This book sheds light on the studies and research presented at the scientific symposium “The Relationship Between Fraud-Related and Organized Crime”, organized by the University in cooperation with Mansoura University in Egypt during the period 18-20/6/2007.

Nature of Money Laundering and Its Relationship to the Prevalence of Drugs

Adel Hassan El-Sayed

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2008

Paper: 131 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-05-4

Abstract

This book deals with the money laundering phenomenon and its accompanying serious effects on economic activities, especially in the context of globalization and its negative consequences on all communities. The drug problem exacerbated on its various dimensions: production, smuggling, illicit trading and money laundering. The latter is obtained from illicit trade of drugs, using various technical means. Such means lead to the dissemination of drugs and its increasing rate of illicit sales.

The Illegal Immigration and The Crime

Osman Al Hassan Mohamed Nour, Yasser Awad El-Karim Al-Mubarak

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2008

Paper: 131 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-9960-59-269-5

Abstract

This book discusses illegal immigration in multiple contents: its volume, standards, flows, characteristics, and consequent repercussions. Moreover, it addressed its risks, namely risks related to crime, in addition to crime from a global perspective, international agreements to combat the smuggling of migrants, as well as mechanisms to address the phenomenon of illegal immigration.

The Violence Among The University Youth

Tahani Mohamed Osman Munib, Azza Mohamed Suleiman

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2007

Paper: 158 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-9960-9990-3-6

Abstract

This book discusses violence among university youth and its relationship with some psychological and social variables. Such relationship reveals that most influential variables represent causative determinants. The book aims to reveal the background of university youth violence. It also points out the motivational psychology underlying this violent behavior. In addition, verification of correlation between violence in its various dimensions on the one hand, and the alienation and the socio-economic are verified variables on the other hand.

Arabic Security Training and Its Reality and Development Perspectives: An Analytical Study of the Experiences and Trends

Amer Khudhir Hamid El-Kubaisi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2007

Paper: 215 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-9960-9990-5-0

Abstract

This book deals with the Arabic security training and its development perspectives. The author surveyed the reality of the security training throughout the Arab world without any commitment to the regional scale. This study is based on the information officially authenticated and based on the experiences of the Arab countries. Also, the study includes the field analysis of opinions of the Arab training institutions.

Personal Identification Systems: Evolution and Development

Abdullah bin Mohamed El-Yousef

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2007

Paper: 374 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-9962-0-2

Abstract

This book deals with the scientific methods used in the personal identification, current and past, in a chronological determining. In other words, the study shows experiments of previous civilizations and the outcomes of recent technologies. It supports the written with pictures, drawings and diagrams.

International Economic and Financial Crimes and Methods of Their Encounters

Mukhtar H. Shabli

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2007

Paper: 136 Pages

SBN-P: 9960-9845-5-9

Abstract

This book deals with international financial and economic crimes and the methods of encounter. It offers a scientific study on international financial and economic crimes and their repercussions linked with international, regional and national contributions in the form of mechanisms and tools to combat such crimes.

The book highlights the manifestations of such crimes and attaches great importance to study and research in this field.

Terrorism and Marine Piracy

A group of experts and specialists

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2006

Paper: 383 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-9761-1-4

Abstract

This book is a compilation of research and studies presented at the scientific seminar (Terrorism and Marine Piracy), organized by the University in Sanaa during the period 13-15/9/2004.

International Cooperation in the Fight Against Drugs

A group of experts and specialists

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2006

Paper: 186 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-003961

Abstract

This book comprise the studies and research presented at the Seminar "International Cooperation in the Fight Against Drugs" held in cooperation with the Ministry of Interior Ministry and local groups in Algeria during the period 20-22/6/2005. It sheds light on the elements of international cooperation in the area of combating drugs. During the seminar, Arab countries were called to intensify their presence and participation in Arab and international meetings in fields relevant to drug control and money laundering.

The Rights of Intellectual Property

A group of experts and specialists

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2004

Paper: 390 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-9515-9-6

Abstract

The present book includes research and studies presented at the scientific seminar entitled "The Rights of Intellectual Property", organized by the University in Riyadh in cooperation with the Association of Arab Universities during the period 31/3 - 3/4 2004. During the seminar, laws of intellectual property rights in Arab countries were updated in the field of literary, scientific, artistic, industrial and commercial property, in line with relevant international agreements.

Forgery and Plagiarism in Arabic Manuscripts

Abed Suliman Al-Mashwakhi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2001

Paper: 206 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-853-51-9

Abstract

This book addresses forgery and plagiarism in Arab manuscripts. It uncovers the reality of some manuscripts with forged titles, authors names, and dates of transcription. Forgery may be performed intentionally or by mistakes committed by transcribers. Also, forgery may originate from transcribers misreading, misuse by paper manufacturers and others. The book supports its opinion by some samples and events mentioned in some historical resources and biography books with some pictorial samples showing forgery, counterfeit, and plagiarism in various manuscripts.

The criminal Justice Systems in Arab Countries: Stages Prior to Judiciary Proceedings

Mohamed Ibrahim Zay

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2001

Paper: 277 Pages

ISBN-P: 978-603-8006-13-5

Abstract

This book explores the subjects of “The Criminal Justice Systems in Arab Countries: Stages Prior to Judiciary Proceedings”. This is in light of social, economic and political variables recently experienced by the states of the region. The latter necessitates reconsidering the judiciary systems regulating the justice that is based on, legislative rules, customary rules, habits, traditions, or religious-fundamentalist rules that agree with the social and economic renaissance.

The Criminal Justice Systems in Arab Countries: Investigation and Judicial Proceedings

Mohamed Ibrahim Zay

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2001

Paper: 480 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-853-32-2

Abstract

This book explores the subject of “Criminal Justice Systems in Arab Countries: Investigation and Judicial Proceedings”. This is in quest of the relative justice, the protection of rights and the criminal procedure policy. It investigates complaints like justice can’t be achieved, and penal institutions can’t accommodate prisoners. Also, all forms of actions, since commission of crime until the execution of judgment, are no longer effective in the prevention of crimes of terrorism, crimes against humanity, economic crimes, and cybercrime.

Voluntary Work for Inmates in the Correctional Facilities

Ahsen Mubarak Talib

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2000

Paper: 171 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-853-22-5

Abstract

The present book discusses the voluntary work for inmates in correctional facilities in Arab countries. This is in an attempt to rehabilitate the inmates and to integrate them into community as normal members feeling responsible for their community. It discussed prisons or correctional institutions, work of inmates, the obstacles related to the management of correctional institutions, and the obstacles related to the prisoners themselves and the society.

Management: The Basics and their Applications in the Economic and Security Activities

Saad El-Din Eshmawi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2000

Paper: 363 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-853-24-1

Abstract

The present book explores the management basics and their applications in economic and security activities. It aims to provide a general framework for the managerial and scientific concepts. Also, it points out and analyzes the circumstances surrounding the implementation of project and affecting its proficiency. Moreover, it focuses on the managerial problems and circumstances in Arab societies as possible.

Security Media and Crime Prevention

Ali bin Fayez Al-Jehni

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2000

Paper: 429 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-853-21-7

Abstract

The present book explores security media, aiming to point out these matters: the concept of security media; determinants of security media; dimensions of security media; and the role of security media in safeguarding Arab societies against crime. This is in addition to the participation in founding and extending the philosophy of security media. It addresses security media and contemporary challenges to scientific research, psychological war, misleading advertising, rumors, environmental pollution, terrorism, drugs, and traffic accidents.

Arab Security: Constituents and Impediments

Muhammed Al Amin Al Bushra

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2000

Paper: 612 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-853-14-4

Abstract

This book addresses Arab security in terms of its constituents and impediments. It aims to provide general indications on the security threats surrounding the Arab world; it will clarify its domestic and foreign sources without giving precise details. It sheds light on the concept of Arab security and security theories.

Forensic Medicine in Criminal Investigations

Ibrahim Sadeq Al-Jundi

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2000

Paper: 301 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-853-12-8

Abstract

This book addresses forensic medicine in criminal investigations. It highlights the important role played by forensic medicine in criminal investigations related to judicial medical cases, in the light of the new developments of information and skills in this domain. It starts from the importance of the basics and principles of forensic science in criminal investigations.

Arab Media Security Work: Problems and Solutions

Abdul-Rahman bin Mohamed Asiri

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2000

Paper: 200 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-853-11-x

Abstract

The present book sheds light on the problems facing Arab media work and proposed solutions. It seeks to develop the joint Arab media security policies. There should be a study focusing on the factors and reasons behind the inter-Arab disagreements in order to provide solutions for the Arab conflicts, sectarian conflicts within a country or the conflicts among Arab countries.

Security Information

Muhammad Farouq Abdulhamid Kamel

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 1999

Paper: 155 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-853-07-1

Abstract

This book deals with security information being the fundamental center of the police work. It stresses its importance as an abstract fact in the works of the Arab security bodies. The book discusses the nature of the security information in general and identifies its characteristics which are of interest to the security body. It also reveals its different qualities - political, social, and economic. Furthermore, it clarifies methods of registration, classification and counting.

Media and Crises

Adib Kaddour

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 1999

Paper: 143 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-853-05-5

Abstract

This book deals with media and crises. It draws a methodological media framework for the purpose of responding to crises. The introduction includes a wide theorization for crisis management in the media. It also highlights the ability of media to achieve security during crises, and the need for regional and international institutions to work on defining objective standards, such standards will resolve international conflicts that lead to the growing number of crises and disputes.

Border Guard Duties in Arab Countries

A group of experts and specialists

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 1999

Paper: 195 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-853-04-7

Abstract

The present book comprises studies and research presented to the scientific seminar organized by the University during the period 14-16/6/1999 under the title "Functions and Duties of Border Guards and Coast Guards in Arab Countries". The book yielded many recommendations to Naif Arab University for Security Sciences, the most salient are to include borders related issues in the University's work programs through the convention of training courses, seminars and lectures according to the academic development in this area.

Patterns of Crimes in the Arab World

Mohamed Al-Amin Al-Bushra

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 1999

Paper: 230 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-725-98-7

Abstract

This book explores the patterns of crimes in the Arab world attempting to reveal the differences related to the phenomenon of crime, and to identify its forms and classify its new patterns. This is to discuss such phenomenon and to provide the suitable plans for combating it.

Priorities for Developing the Arab Security Media: Its Reality and Prospects of Development

Adib Kaddour

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 1999

Paper: 200 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-725-96-0

Abstract

This book explores the development of the Arab security media in an attempt to the theoretical rooting of a modern Arab security media coping with the modern datum and facts. It discussed specialized media, security media, the reality of Arab security media, and the priorities for developing the Arab security media.

Arab Security Cooperation and Security Challenges

Muhsen Abdul-Hamid Ahmed

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 1999

Paper: 275 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-725-93-6

Abstract

This book explores the “Arab Security Cooperation and Security Challenges”. It seeks to point out the development stages of the Arab security cooperation and its different mechanisms. This aims at facing the security challenges with a high level of efficiency based on description, analysis, presentation and documentation provided by a number of studies, research, articles, reports and official documents. The latter shall make them an important reference to such subject.

Status of Terrorism in the Arab World

Mohamed Fathi Eid

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 1999

Paper: 200 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-725-90-1

Abstract

This book explores an international important issue, i.e., the problem of terrorism, from which many Arab and world countries have been suffering. The book offered various recommendations to reduce terrorism. It recommended to develop the areas neglected for a long time and suffered from poverty, unemployment and low level of facilities, which created a fertile environment for terrorism and extremism.

Security and Protection of Environment

A group of experts and specialists

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 1998

Paper: 363 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-725-56-1

Abstract

This book comprises studies and research presented to the forty-two-seminar entitled “Security and Protection of Environment” which is organized by the University during the period 14-16/10/1996 in its headquarters in Riyadh. The seminar reflects the University’s interest in the protection and safety of environment, in addition to the risks threatening environment in the Arab region.

Security Dictionary (English-Arabic)

A group of experts and specialists

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 1997

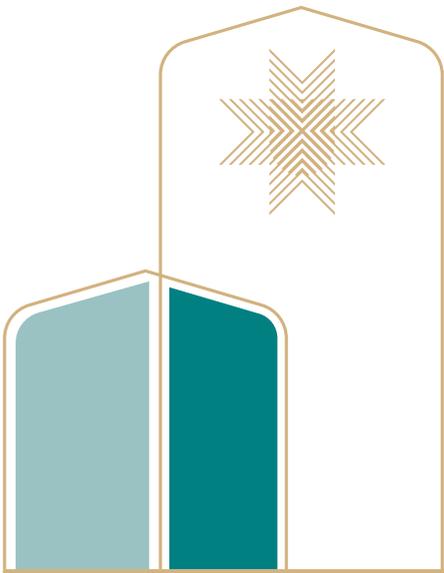

Paper: 246 Pages

ISBN-P: 9960-725-25-1

Abstract

This dictionary has been developed by the University to constitute a significant contribution for covering the different concepts of security sciences and relevant terminologies. It comprised (2700) terminologies in English verified by experienced specialists and covered 18 security fields. These terminologies were explained in Arabic and categorized alphabetically.

Security Policy Papers

Organized Crime in Central Asia and its implications for the Arab region

Security Research Center

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2022

DOI: 10.26735/SWZQ9357

Key Outputs:

- To enhance the information exchange towards unifying efforts to combat organized crime.
- To strengthen regional cooperation in the technological field.
- To establish local initiatives engaging all groups of society in addressing organized crime.

Hate Speech on Social Media: Ways to Combat

Security Research Center

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2022

DOI: 10.26735/HGVY5482

Key Outputs:

- The rising of hate speech around the world is extremely worrying, and may have serious impacts on individuals, groups, and society.
- Countering hate speech on social media requires four basic mechanisms: law, education, technological development, and awareness. All parties concerned with this phenomenon share the responsibility to combat this scourge, including the United Nations, the international community, States and their institutions, and groups and individuals within local communities.
- Public awareness should be built to eradicate hate as a value and an option. This public awareness should be consistent with human values and the belief that the safety of life requires combating hatred as it lays the ground for conflicts and tensions.

Policies to Deal with "Tik Tok" Application Security Challenges

Security Research Center

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2022

DOI: 10.26735/JPJM9678

Key Outputs:

- Tik Tok has sparked considerable controversy around the world over the security challenges and social risks it is believed to pose in addition to its growing use by terrorist and extremist groups.
- Several countries resorted to ban policies to address the security challenges and social risks posed by Tik Tok. Despite the fact that banning the application is a quick and easy solution, it is believed to be short-sighted and shall raise numerous problems and challenges.

Enhancing the Proficiencies of Forensic Laboratories Personnel in the Detection of Forgery and Fraud

Security Research Center

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2021

DOI: 10.26735/XSWD4385

Key Outputs:

- One of the most important methods for the deterrence of forgery and fraud crimes is the prompt trials, which cannot be accomplished without strong evidence and technical reports that receives the required credibility from judicial authorities, the most important of which are: enact regulations and laws, regulatory procedures, scientific qualification, and technical training.
- The importance of establishing a strategy for a complete system through which credibility could be achieved, defeating the challenges that Arab countries face in this field regarding the lack of evidence validity standards and admissibility of forensic reports. In addition to lack of comprehensive technical approval in laboratories regarding certificates such as (ISO 17025) and (ISO/IEC 17020).

Food Security in The Gulf Cooperation Council Countries during the Covid-19 Pandemic: Assessing Efforts and Policy Alternatives

Security Research Center

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2021

DOI: 10.26735/FANH8780

Key Outputs:

- Strengthening the institutional capabilities of the Gulf food security system by accelerating the establishment of a Gulf Center for Food and Water Security Studies and expanding the development of agricultural and water plans and strategies.
- Increasing sustainable domestic agricultural production.
- Improving and enhancing the efficiency of water resource management systems.
- Encouraging regional cooperation to minimize the risk of global food commodity price fluctuations.

The Arab National Security Threats in the Fifth Domain: Towards a Strategy for Protection

Security Research Center

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2021

DOI: 10.26735/ACPS7277

Key Outputs:

- A unified Arab vision shall be established, in addition to establishing a strategy that is capable of handling cyber-attacks as it threatens the security of the region. Arab countries shall operate under the framework of such a strategy. This could be achieved through the Arab Interior Ministers Council.
- Emphasize the importance of the strategic cooperation between countries in the region through sharing information and data necessary for analyzing the digital evidence that assists in discovering cyber-attacks as they occur and take actions to mitigate its effects, in addition to monitoring pirated financial transactions and encrypted currencies used to finance rebel and terrorist movements.

The Reality and Prospects of Protecting Cultural Heritage in The Arab Region

Security Research Center

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2021

DOI: 10.26735/DJFF8984

Key Outputs:

- To increase funds allocated to the protection of the cultural heritage, and to reflect an effective security and cultural policy in order to attract qualified talents and sufficient human resources.
- Advantage should be taken of training opportunities offered by partnerships concluded with certain organizations, such as: the European Union Agency for Law Enforcement Training (CEPOL) which runs the EUROMED Police Project. This project aims at enhancing the capacities of partner countries to fight transnational serious and organized crime against cultural heritage.
- To strengthen the partnership with the International Criminal Police Organization (Interpol) by supporting red lists to track stolen cultural objects.

The Reality of Security Culture Policies in Arab Institutions and The Opportunity for their Development

Security Research Center

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2021

DOI: 10.26735/VKYE6844

Key Outputs:

- To strengthen joint action among Arab and Gulf States, whether through the Arab League or the Gulf Cooperation Council, towards the exchange of expertise and the identification of mechanisms used in the promotion of the security culture.
- Universities and research centers should be engaged in promoting joint action among Arab and Gulf States aimed at raising societal awareness of the importance of the security culture.
- The promotion of the security culture is a contributing factor to combating extremism and terrorism.
- Advantage should be taken of guiding and warning electronic applications, thereby supporting and promoting the security culture.

Youth and Women Empowerment Policies in the Arab World: Reality, Opportunities, and Challenges

Security Research Center

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2021

DOI: 10.26735/YQSN4660

Key Outputs:

- It is imperative to establish participatory working relationships between governments and civil society organizations involving youth and women, which shall enable the formulation of policies and the scheduling of priorities, mechanisms, resources, and contributing factors.
- Efforts should focus on making healthy and safe life a top priority for the youth particularly psychologically and socially vulnerable groups. In addition, it is necessary to provide constructive and ambitious education and to disseminate knowledge using modern methods through the introduction of hybrid education.
- The development of the empowerment of youth and women should be tracked through conducting periodic surveys and questionnaires, as well as through the establishment of a permanent dialogue to seek solutions and formulate policies.

Face recognition technology in combating crimes in Arab airports

Security Research Center

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2021

DOI: 10.26735/VGQW1724

Key Outputs:

- Verification of identity by face recognition is a widespread use of biometrics. This type of persons identification method is employed worldwide for significant cases.
- Biometrics are used in information technology as a form of identity access management and access control. In addition, biometrics are used to identify monitored individuals among groups.
- There is a need to conduct further tests to precisely define the accuracy of facial recognition technology prior to recommending its implementation in the Arab States.

Security management in road accidents under the influence of substance abuse

Security Research Center

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2021

DOI: 10.26735/HBLD8061

Key Outputs:

- Drug-impaired driving is among the most significant risk factors contributing to traffic accidents.
- Drug abuse negatively affects various aspects of driving, such as: slow reaction, lack of motor coordination, lack of focus, poor vision, and reduced ability to make judgments.
- Many strategies are in place to reduce drug-impaired driving. One example is deterrence through the enactment, dissemination, and enforcement of laws prohibiting drug-impaired driving. Prevention is another example, it is implemented by reducing drug abuse in the community and raising awareness of its risks, raising community awareness on the risks associated with drug-impaired driving, and developing positive social standards to make drug-impaired driving socially unacceptable.

Digital Cooperation Policies between Arab Security Agencies

Security Research Center

Publisher: Naif University Publishing House - 2021

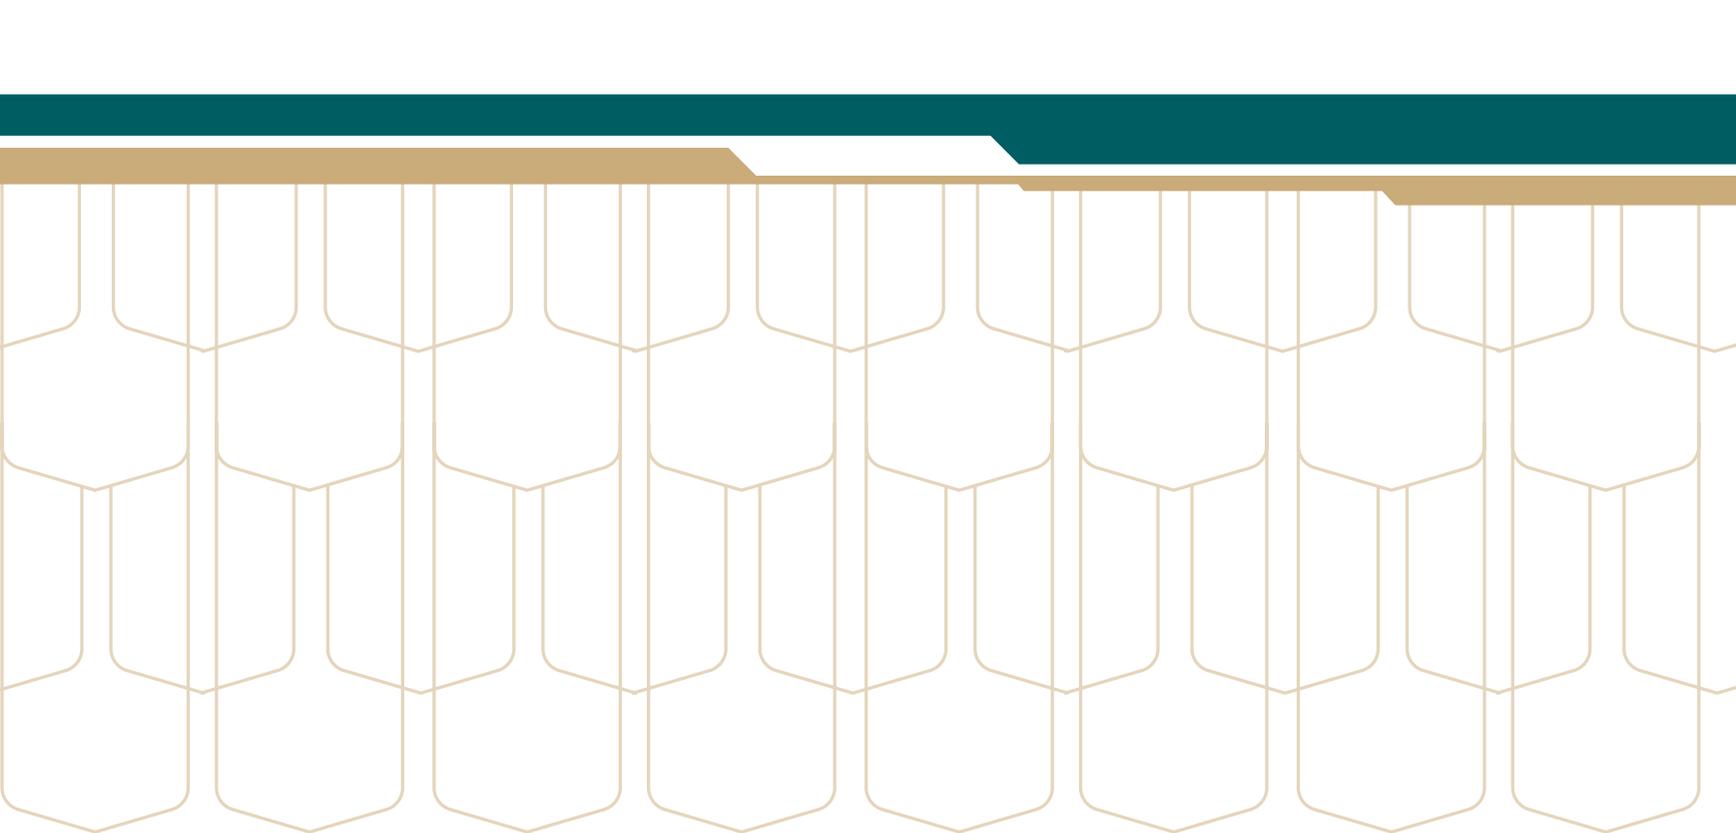

DOI: 10.26735/HJOO8882

Key Outputs:

- Exchanging information and data within the means of transferring information developed and required to be developed through the channels of international cooperation to encounter international crimes through secured applications and technological software.
- Early examination of information indicating the association of terrorist cells or criminal organizations within states through joint investigations and information evidence.
- Providing means of communications and transmitting information among Arab police agencies in order to achieve complete confidentiality.

Contact us

Naif Arab University for Security Sciences

Naif University Publishing House

Email: nuph@nauss.edu.sa

Tel.: 00966-112463444 Ext. 3511 /3508